Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 2619

Claims 1-9 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 3, 6, 7, 10, 13, 14 and 16 of U.S. Patent No. 7,050,570. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 1-9 of the present application merely broadens the scope of the claim 1, 3, 6, 7, 10, 13, 14 and 16 of the Patent by eliminating the elements and their functions of the claims. In addition, all of the claimed limitations of claims 1-9 of the present are encompassed in claims 1, 3, 6, 7, 10, 13, 14 and 16 of the patent.

The difference between claim 1 of the current Application and claim 1 of the US PAT 7,050,570 is the Patent includes a lengthy preamble that includes "apparatus connected to a voice terminal apparatus and an opposite-side communication apparatus connected to an opposite-side voice terminal apparatus, and making said communication apparatus and said opposite-side communication apparatus communicate with each other through a communication channel,"

Dependent claims 3 and 4 of the Patent include the limitation of claims 2 and 3 respectively, of the Application.

Dependent claims 6 and 7 of the Patent include the limitation of claims 4 and 5 respectively, of the Application

Furthermore, the difference between claim 6 of the present Application and claim 10 of the Patent is that the Patent includes "a communication system in which a communication apparatus and an opposite-side communication apparatus are connected to each other through a communication channel, wherein said communication apparatus comprises a voice coding unit for code-compressing a voice signal received from a terminal apparatus and thereby generating voice information, a DTMF detecting unit for detecting that a voice signal received from said terminal apparatus is a DTMF signal, a DTMF coding unit for when said DTMF detecting unit has detected the DTMF signal, coding a DTMF signal into a DTMF signal transmission form and thereby Generating DTMF information, and an information outputting unit for outputting voice information generated by said voice coding unit and/or DTMF information generated by said coding unit to said communication channel and said opposite-side communication apparatus comprises.”

Dependent claim 13 of the Patent includes the limitation of claim 7 of the Application.

Dependent claim 14 of the Patent includes the limitation of claim 8 of the Application.

Dependent claim 16 of the Patent includes the limitation of claim 9 of the Application.

It has been held that the omission an element and its function is an obvious expedient if the remaining elements perform the same function as before. In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184 (CCPA). Also note Ex parte Rainu, 168 USPQ 375 (Bd.App.1969); omission of a reference element whose function is not needed would be obvious to one skilled in the art.
